Memo for the Midterm

• The midterm exam is on Wednesday, October 13, from 11:30 to 12:45.

• Students with last names beginning with A-L will take the exam in WLH 119. Students with last names beginning with L-Z will take the exam in the University Theater on York Street. The building has a sign that says Media Services.

• Please arrive early. Sit every other seat.

• The exam is divided into three sections. You will be provided three blue books. Write your answer for each section in a single blue book. So your answer for Section I goes in one blue book, your answer for Section II goes in another blue book, and your answer for Section III goes in the third blue book.

• The Instructions at the top of the exam will be

Instructions: You have 75 minutes to complete the exam. The exam is designed to take 60 minutes. No aids are permitted when writing the exam. Read all three questions completely, and answer each one in the blue books provided. Points will be awarded in proportion to the minutes suggested for each problem. Good Luck.

• The exam is designed to take 60 minutes. You have 15 minutes of slack. The exam is over at 12:45 sharp.

• The exam is closed book. No electronic devices including calculators, computers, or PDAs are allowed. If you bring them to the exam, they should be given to the proctor to hold during the exam. All cell phones should be turned off and put away during the exam.

• Do not bring any bluebooks to the exam. Bluebooks will be handed out at the start of the exam.

• It is strongly recommended that you write the exam in blue or black pen.

• Yale College rules on academic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. All violations (as well as appearances of violations) will be reported to the Yale College Executive Committee.

• I will hold office hours on Tuesday, October 12 from 10:00 AM to Noon in my office (28 Hillhouse Avenue, Room 304).
• Radha will run a review session on Monday, October 11 at 8:00 PM in DL 220.

• The teaching fellows will run office hours on Tuesday, October 12 from 5PM - 11 PM in Machine City.